SAJIDUL HASAN

OBJECTIVE

I love to seek new knowledge & hunt to learn something new which is unknown to me. It may be new tech things or upcoming world trends which sector or things come up with new scope & feature for us. . We don't know exactly what invention comes after 5-10 or 20 years we have to make preparations for surviving with strange things. I want to take my job as a challenge. I want to leave my comfort zone & try to learn new things.

I want a challenging career to prove myself as a dedicated & dynamic person in the professional environment of an organization.
